

An employee publication of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice

January/February 2013
Volume 20 Issue 3

Agency News

Mendoza selected to lead the Administrative Review and Risk Management Division

In December, Oscar Mendoza was named the new Director of the Administrative Review and Risk Management (ARRM) Division for the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ). Mendoza has more than 32 years of experience with the agency, having started his career as a correctional officer at the Eastham Unit in Lovelady. He has served in several agency security positions, including senior warden, regional director and, most recently, deputy director of management operations for the Correctional Institutions Division.

Oscar Mendoza

As ARRM director, Mr. Mendoza oversees operations governing Access to Courts, Offender Grievance, Ombudsman services, Monitoring and Standards, Risk Management and Use of Force review.

TDCJ Executive Director Brad Livingston congratulated Mr. Mendoza on his promotion saying, "His strong leadership experience and wealth of knowledge will continue to serve the agency well." ●