Human Resources names Speece 2014 Employee of the Year

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice Human Resources Division held its 14th Annual Employee of the Year Luncheon in November at the TDCJ Conference Center. The 12 Employees of the Month for fiscal year 2014 were presented with plaques in recognition of their outstanding performance and Dianne Speece, Human Resources Specialist III at the LeBlanc Unit, was selected Human Resources FY 2014 Employee of the Year.

Speece, who has been with TDCJ for more than 24 years, was recognized for her outstanding performance as a unit Human Resources Specialist, her commitment to helping agency employees and her in-depth knowledge of policies and procedures. Speece was also commended for her performance as an exceptionally dedicated, dependable employee with high professional standards.

All honorees were recognized individually for their valuable contributions. Human Resources Division Director Patty Garcia personally recognized all award recipients and expressed her appreciation, saying, "Each of this year's recipients deserves recognition and thanks for their commitment to professional performance. Their dedication to excellence serves as a good example for all." ●

In November, Human Resources Division Employees of the Month for 2014 were recognized with a luncheon held in their honor. Dianne Speece, holding plaque at center front, was selected for special recognition as Human Resources 2014 Employee of the Year.
