5th Annual Statewide Reentry Conference

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice was one of several host organizations for the 5th Annual Statewide Reentry Conference in January. Held at the state Capitol in Austin, the conference serves as a platform for educators, service providers, administrators and policy makers to discuss reentry initiatives on a local and statewide level.

TDCJ Executive Director Brad Livingston speaks with attendees of the 5th Annual Statewide Reentry Conference. Mr. Livingston was a member of the keynote panel at the conference and discussed recently implemented re-entry initiatives.
