

July/August 2012

Volume 19 Issue 6

Saluting Employees

An employee publication of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice

TDCJ athletes go for the gold at 2012 Texas Police Games

In late June, four TDCJ employees joined hundreds of Texas law enforcement officers in Austin to participate in the 2012 Texas Police Games. The annual competition is hosted by the Texas Police Athletic Federation and features events that promote fitness and friendly competition among the law enforcement community.

Wynne Unit Warden Vernon Pittman (right) leads the competition on the way to his tenth consecutive win in the 400-meter run. Pittman competes annually in the Police Games.

Photo by Jene Andersen

Continued

Continued from page 1

Wynne Unit Captain Kendrick Demyers (#202 on far left) came in fourth in the 100-meter run, and also ran the 200-meter race.

Photo by Jene Andersen

Continued

Continued from page 2

Hughes Unit Warden Ed Smith and members of the Centex Enforcers softball team won five of the seven games they played during the Police Games.

Photo by Jene Andersen

Continued

Continued from page 3

Roach Unit Warden Paul Sloan and his teammate finished third in the racquetball open division.

Photo by Jene Andersen