Human Resources' Thornton, Manufacturing and Logistics' Hazlewood set to retire

August 31 will mark the retirement of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice's (TDCJ) directors of Human Resources (HR) and Manufacturing and Logistics divisions.

Jan Thornton

HR Director Jan Thornton has worked for TDCJ for more than 28 years, serving 27 of those years with the Human Resources Division. She rose through a series of positions, to include secretary, section director, deputy division director and division director.

Congratulating Thornton on her career with the agency, Executive Director Brad Livingston said she has provided exceptional leadership to TDCJ during her tenure, describing her as a strong and talented leader who has been a key member of the agency's leadership team. ●

C.F. Hazlewood

Director of Manufacturing and Logistics Division C.F. Hazlewood retires after serving more than 30 years with TDCJ, culminating with his most recent position as director of the Manufacturing and Logistics Division.

In recognition of his work, Executive Director Brad Livingston praised Hazlewood's exceptional leadership and strong operational oversight capabilities, noting that his commitment and dedication will have a positive and lasting impact on the agency. ●
