

An employee publication of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice

July/August 2015

Volume 22 Issue 6

Saluting Employees

Davis named deputy director of CID Support Operations

In July, Lorie Davis was named deputy director of Support Operations for TD-CJ's Correctional Institutions Division. Davis has more than 26 years' experience with the agency, beginning her career as a correctional officer in 1988.

During her career, Davis has served as senior warden at nine CID units, earning experience in a variety of correctional operations including substance abuse treatment, inpatient mental health care, medical and maximum-security facilities, and male and female offender populations. She has served as CID Region III Director, director of Correctional Training and Staff Development and, most recently, as CID Management Operations

Lorie Davis

Deputy Director. Davis holds a bachelor's degree from Midwestern State University and a master's degree from Texas Tech University.

CID Director Bill Stephens congratulated Davis on her new position, saying, "Lorie has demonstrated strong leadership qualities throughout her career and will continue to effectively improve the Correctional Institutions Division as we move forward." ●