

Agency News

An employee publication of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice

Wingate appointed to Texas Board of Criminal Justice

In April, Governor Rick Perry announced the appointment of Thomas P. Wingate to the Texas Board of Criminal Justice. He replaces J. David Nelson on the nine-member board which oversees the operations of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

Mr. Wingate is a graduate of St. Mary's University, the University of Texas School of Law, and the National College of District Attorneys. He served in the U.S. Army and Army Reserve, and has been involved with numerous civic and religious organizations. Mr. Wingate is an attorney specializing in Commercial and Residential Real Estate Law.

Thomas P. Wingate

Governor Perry also announced the reappointments of Eric Gambrell and Terrell McCombs. All three appointments are for terms which will expire on February 1, 2019. ●