Human Resources names Employee of the Year

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) Human Resources Division (HR) held its 13th annual Employee of the Year Luncheon in November at the TDCJ Conference Center. The 12 Employees of the Month for fiscal year (FY) 2013 were presented with plaques in recognition of their outstanding performance, and Jason Tucker, Human Resources Specialist IV from Employees Services in HR Headquarters, was selected FY 2013 Employee of the Year.

Tucker, who has been with TDCJ for more than seven years, was recognized for his outstanding performance as Assistant Leaves Administrator, quality customer service and ability to fulfill additional responsibilities when necessary. Also noted were Tucker's timely and expert advice based on substantial technical knowledge.

Patty Garcia, director of the Human Resources Division, recognized all award recipients, saying, "The Human Resources Division truly appreciates the hard work of these staff members and their continued efforts to support the Texas Department of Criminal Justice." ●

In November, Human Resources Division Employees of the Month for 2013 were recognized with a luncheon held in their honor. Jason Tucker, holding plaque at center front, was selected for special recognition as Human Resources 2013 Employee of the Year. Left row, front to back: Dwight Gould, Carolyn Franklin, Cathy Blanchard and Becky Dewbre. Center row, front to back: Jason Tucker, Nequona Rolling, Glendys Santos and Cathy Torres. Right row, front to back: Nalkio Maitchell, Christy McClain, Anna Leon and Joyce Carter.
