

Saluting Employees

An employee publication of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice

Granados named Parole Region V director

Juan Granados was recently selected to fill the position of regional director for Region V in Lubbock for the Parole Division. Region V covers west Texas and has 13 district parole offices with approximately 250 employees and 12,200 offenders.

Juan Granados

Granados began his career with TDCJ as an entry level parole officer in Austin and advanced through supervisory positions, most recently as assistant region director in Parole Region IV which comprises central and south Texas. Granados holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from Texas A&M University at Corpus Christi. ●