

An employee publication of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice

September/October 2016
Volume 24 Issue 1

Agency News

Dunbar named Private Facilities deputy division director

Mrs. Allison Dunbar was selected as deputy division director of TDCJ's Private Facility Contract Monitoring/Oversight Division (PFCMOD), effective September 1.

Dunbar began her career with TDCJ in 1993 as a time clerk for the Correctional Institutions Division's Classification and Records department. She moved on to hold various positions in the agency's Business and Finance Division to include accountant, budget analyst and assistant budget director, as well as auditor with the Internal Audit Division. She joined PFCMOD in 2011 as a business manager and most recently served as deputy director of Compliance Monitoring.

Allison Dunbar

PFCMOD Director Cody Ginsel congratulated Dunbar on her promotion saying, "Her wealth of knowledge and experience in business operations, along with her strong leadership qualities, positive energy and dedication will serve the agency well."

Dunbar earned a bachelor's degree of Business Administration in Accounting from Sam Houston State University in 1991. She replaces Billy Hirsch, who was named deputy director of Prison and Jail Operations for TDCJ's Correctional Institutions Division. ●