

COME TO ME PROJECT

A Counseling, Mentoring and Support Service Program for Children of Incarcerated Parents (Ages 8-17)

More than 2.7 million children in the US has an incarcerated parent and approximately 10 million children have experienced parental incarceration at some point in their lives. Texas is home to an estimated 400,000 children with a parent serving time in prison or jail.

Children of incarcerated parents are the forgotten “Victims” of incarceration

The Wellspring “Come To Me” Project delivers services to children of incarcerated parents providing up to ten (10) hours per month of:

- ▶ Individualized Counseling/Therapy
- ▶ Special Education and Academic In-School Support
- ▶ Personal Mentor
- ▶ Child Visitation and Communication Assistance
- ▶ Art and Pet Therapy

Measurable Outcomes:

- ▶ Improved Self-esteem
- ▶ Academic Performance
- ▶ Reduction in Delinquent Behavior and Criminal Activities
- ▶ Reduced Anger and Guilt

GET HELP TODAY: CONNECT YOUR CHILD/CHILDREN WITH CERTIFIED COUNSELORS AND SUPPORT SERVICES

If you have a family member or know of anyone in need of services, please email Wellspring at: wellspringcustomerservice@gmail.com or call 832-220-4700