Parole Review Questionnaire

Offender: _____ SID # _____ TDCJ # _____

Unit of Assignment: _____

These questions have been developed to provide additional information to the parole panel when reviewing your case for parole/mandatory supervision. While under no obligation to answer these questions, this can provide valuable insight prior to rendering a decision. When completed please turn into your Unit Institutional Parole Staff, and they will place into your file for the parole panel to review. Additionally, SUBMIT ONLY WHEN YOU ARE IN THE REVIEW PROCESS.

1. Please describe any personal, social, or situational factors that may have contributed to your conviction or arrest, as well as the steps you have taken to address these factors.
2. Since your incarceration, what steps have you taken to improve yourself and prepare for a successful transition upon release?
3. If your record indicates a substance-related offense, please describe the support systems or recovery measures you have in place to maintain sobriety.
4. Please describe the factors that contributed to your success or failure during any previous periods of parole or probation supervision.
5. If released, please discuss your support environment. Include your plans for employment and financial support. Note any specific trade, educational background, or skills you possess.
6. Please provide your preferred residential address along with the name, relationship, phone number, and/or email address of contacts, listing as many as possible in order of preference. If you require housing accommodations, please specify.
7. Is there any additional information you would like the parole panel to consider?

I elect not to make a statement.
