TDCJ Partner's Program

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) is committed to rehabilitation and recognizes the value that ex-offenders with recovery experience could have on helping others in the recovery community. TDCJ will utilize the "Partners Program" as a way to bring certified or designated Recovery Coaches back into the prison system to assist and mentor other TDCJ offenders.

The Partners Program allows ex-offenders, sponsored by and accompanied by an approved volunteer, to serve as substance abuse volunteers six months after release from incarceration. This program allows ex-offenders to share recovery, sobriety, and hope with those still in prison.

A Partners Program Volunteer is an offender who has been released for a period of six months or more, and has one year of sobriety, six months of which may be acquired during their incarceration. In order to gain maximum benefit of peer recovery through the Partners Program, accompanied partners may serve on units at which they were previously incarcerated. The requirements for volunteering under the Partner's Program are:

- Shall have 1 year of sobriety (6 months of which may have been acquired while incarcerated) at the time of application
- Must have been released for 6 months
- PO or CSO (if applicable) must be aware of your participation
- Must be accompanied by an "approved volunteer" or TDCJ staff member
- Must have completed all Peer Recovery Support Specialist Training
- Must have a Peer Recovery Support Specialist Certification or Designation from the Texas Certification Board of Addiction Professionals.
- Must apply to and be approved by TDCJ – Volunteer Services

To apply to become a TDCJ volunteer, interested persons should contact TDCJ Volunteer Services Program staff at (936)-437-3026, or visit the website at:

Winners Circle Contact List

The Winners Circle was established as a peer support and peer-driven network of men and women returning to their communities after completing substance abuse rehabilitation in an in-prison therapeutic community program and community-based therapeutic transitional center. The men and women completing the therapeutic community treatment modality discovered that they are their brothers' keeper and established the Winners Circle to help other releases in their reintegration and recovery. Winners Circle Chapters are also seeking new members. Contact a Winners Circle group in your community for recovery and reintegration assistance and to become a member.
